FRIENDS OF THE
BANNING LIBRARY
REPORT

Friends of the Banning Library treasurer, Linda Page gave a report on FOBL’s activities last month and ongoing programs. The annual essay contest is starting and plan to announce the winners during Library Week on April 22. During Library week Pat Murkland is scheduled to give a presentation on the first book added to the Banning Library catalog. The new logo for the FOBL is almost done. The books donated will no longer be sold to Thrift Books and instead be sold to Thrift Global. Page asked the Board of Trustees to add an item to the next Board Meeting to determine if a storage shed can be bought.

FINANCE REPORT

Director Lee gave the finance report to the Board of Trustees.

DISTRICT DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Director Lee announced to the Board that he filled the open job positions. The Library has three (3) candidates signed up for the high School Online program and will interview the candidates next Wednesday. An event is being organized for the Elks grant and Director Lee encouraged the Board to attend when a date is determined. The outreach to Hemerling Elementary was canceled because the event was canceled, but Christian Tzintzun did participate at the Family Reading Night at Central Elementary. Tomorrow Director Lee will attend the Budgeting training for Special District at Chino. Director Lee tried to register himself and Fernando Morales to the Space Planning Reinventing Your Library Space event because the registration date was removed. Supervisory Skills for the Public Sector in Montclair, Online ADA Compliance and Transparency Requirements webinar, Special Districts Leadership Academy in San Diego, and Serving With Purpose in Ontario. There is graffiti outside the children’s room wall Director Lee and Fernando Morales will fix it once the rain goes away. The key to one of the public restrooms was stolen and plans are to modify the locks with new ones that no longer require keys. To redesign the Library District website three (3) bids are out and they are working on designs, once done, Director Lee will bring them before the Board for approval. During the history report President Little recommended that the Library coordinate with Dorothy Ramon for an event.
